Boyd Rice Solicitors is delighted to announce the opening of our new office in Bangor which coincides with marked growth especially in the areas of conveyancing and litigation.

“We already have an established client base in Bangor and have been looking for the right location to open an office there for some time now. Our new premises are conveniently located and will ensure that our existing clients in Bangor, and new clients, have easy access to our range of legal services. The opening of our Bangor office marks a significant step in the growth of the Firm and we are looking forward to making a positive impact in the Bangor community”
- Ben Wall, Director
